Lifesigns Intimacy Fecundity And Ecstasy

The book is framed around the assumption that humans are basically driven by fear. Using John 15 as the starting point for his conclusions, Nouwen suggests that intimacy (love), fecundity (fruitfulness), and ecstasy (joy) are the solutions that God offers us for our fear-filled lives.

Lifesigns: Intimacy, Fecundity, and Ecstasy in Christian ...

The first of these is the Gospel invitation to intimacy, which Nouwen describes as communion with God and relationship with others. The second is the call to fecundity, exhorting us to be open to a fruitful life of change and growth. And the third, the experience of ecstasy, extends the Gospel promise "that your joy may be full."

Lifesigns : Intimacy, Fecundity, and Ecstasy in Christian ...

The author looks at life driven by fear versus life lived in love. Looking at three characteristics of a person's life - intimacy (a sense of belonging), fecundity (fruitfulness), ecstasy (complete joy) - Nouwen discusses how fear blocks and love builds these characteristics in our personal lives and in community life.

Lifesigns: Intimacy, Fecundity, and Ecstasy in Christian ...

In Lifesigns, Nouwen explores three elements of what he considered the call of all people: Intimacy - the gospel invitation to communion with God and relationship with others; Fecundity - the exhortation to be open to a fruitful life of both growth and change; Ecstasy - the Gospel wish and promise of Jesus that "your joy may be complete". Nouwen shows how these elements are essential to our movement from the "house of fear" to the "house of love".
