The Cestus Deception is an overall good book, that seems to be the perfect mix of a Jedi centric book and a Travis Clone Commando book. I liked how many of the characters are spot on (maybe Kit Fisto seemed a bit off), but what seemed odd, that at the same time the characterization of organisations seemed off.

Star Wars: The Cestus Deception by Steven Barnes ...

Deception in itself is an intriguing subject, considering that the entire galaxy is engulfed in a state of chaos, full scale war doesn't touch Ord Cestus. Deceptions are the guns of war used on Ord Cestus... it plays out more like a Cold War scenario, which, in my opinion, made the book a gripping read.
